Dated at the Town of Bow Island, in the Province of Alberta this 29th day of October A.D. 1920

W.A. Bateman, Secretary-Treasurer Town of Bow Island.

Bow Island

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thurston wish to convey their heartiest thanks to all the kind friends and neighbours for the Grand Reception and Dance, given at the Lansdell School, on Wednesday evening Nov. 24th, in honour of their "Wedding" on Nov. 9th, also for the harmonious noise around their residence early in the evening. Shots were fired, Wedding Bells rang, all the dogs barked, the children shouted, and altogether they were a jolly crowd.

Thank you one and all, altho two weeks late.

George and Robert Gillford were the guests of Herb Wathen for a few days last week. They have left for Swift Current and were accompanied by Swift Current by Mrs. Lizzie Arblaster who has left for her home in Saskatchewan.

BOW ISLAND M. D. HEAVILY FINED

Dr. Munroe, of Bow Island, was fined three hundred dollars and costs by Magistrate Major Burrell at the Mounted Police barracks Wed. afternoon on a charge of being in possession of an illicit still. Charges concerning tampering with inland revenue stamps were not pressed by C. T. Wood.

Detective Aton passed through enroute to Lethbridge with two half-bred prisoners charged with vagrancy.

Mr. Burrell, Police Magistrate from Lethbridge was a business visitor to Grassy Lake and Bow Island.

Granna Henry of Fertile Plains who is in her 80th year does some wonderful painting in spite of her being a cripple, and also confined to her bed for over six years. She would be pleased to see anyone who is going to Fertile Plains.

Last Wednesday a sale was held at the residence of the late Dr. Payne. The weather was good & prices soared high as there were a large number present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anson were visitors to town last Wednesday.

A number of the prominent citizens of Burdett were in Bow Island Tuesday evening attending lodge.

The Ryge family of Winnifred are progressively sicker now after having Scarlet Fever.

Dr. Henderson was also summoned to the home of Mrs. Bowenman.

Quite a number of people attended the Dance last Wednesday night at Grassy Lake.

"The Spinsters' Convention" which was recently given in the L.O.O.F. Hall at Bow Island by the Ladies of Whitta was greatly appreciated by a full house; it was one round of merriment and the Music and Singing by the Ladies was extremely good.

We little know we had such a good Songster in our midst until Mr. Tom Drinkwater gave the audience a good rousing song, for which he got thousands of applause and deafening cries of "Encore" which he kindly gave and although called on again and again he gallantly made way for the Ladies.

Mr. Henry Lavell acted as a most humorous Professor.

The following ladies kindly took part and each helped to make the evening a splendid success:-

Mrs. Dan Sweet; Mrs. Manney; Mrs. Pat Coleman; Mrs. Will Pipher; Mrs. Chas. Strum; Mrs. Bert Polinkas; Mrs. John Verhoest; Mrs. Jim Fisher; Mrs. J. Ensign; Mrs. O'Neill; Mrs. Frank Granger; also Miss Hazel Strum; Miss Manney; Miss Maria Stofkalis; Miss M. Richardson; Francesa Strum.

And now we wind up like Dickens' character and say, "Here's to the Ladies, God bless them"

From the Diary of A Hudson's Bay Clerk in the Seventies

By O-GE-MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

(Copyrighted)

We had the district accounts of the Past winter and if ever an H. B. Clerk was sick of book-keeping I was the man. My Clerk (dear A.M.) was a splendid fellow, but disliked all hardship and exposure, while this to me was meat and drink. By dint of much coaxing I had the remnants of what train dogs were left after six trains (four dogs to a train) had been picked by the native drivers—a wretched outfit. They would stop when I jumped on the toboggan, but by dint of good feeding and much running they were by no means the worst team in the spring. Corrie was the foregoer, and I secured him in trade from Bates for a fat, lazy husky, and wondered at my own luck and also why he was fool enough to trade even. I soon found out; for on a trip to the Mountain there was a long musky traverse and just one recent spot to hold the kettle. On reaching this spot with an appetite sharper than a wolf, I hung out, "Whoo, Corrie!" and he came to my head, gave me a cunning look, then bolted like a Jack rabbit, and it was at least two hours before I got near the sleigh again, with feelings too deep for words.

I realized then why Bates traded even (as this it appears was his usual game), but it was not the following winter that I got even with Corrie, when, with man against dog, I ran him down between Cumberland House and Fort La Combe, and that seemed to take the heart out of him. But I am a long way off from those playful days of the toboggan, and on ways the way in the north; start any subject you like and it will always end in Dog, and yet again Dog. I have heard Donald A. Smith when he was Governor of the Company, with other high officials at the Fort Garry men, when the desert was put on the table and the wine glasses filled, all vying with one another as to the merits of their particular dog trains, and I think one must hand in the Donald A. for the best years. Perhaps that is why he was made top-dog.

We had several outbreaks from the Past that winter and when the accounts got too much for me, A.M. would suggest that an inspection should be made and the native trader checked up. It was not the first time, for I and I thoroughly enjoyed the trips here and there. There was but one fault, and that was that they were too short. However, before spring I had a ten-day tramp and that ended the season for a while.

Along about the end of February we found there was likely to be a great shortage of ammunition in the spring, especially if the rat hunt was big, and all signs pointed that way. The nearest point to a further supply was Grand Rapids Post at the mouth of the Saskatchewan River, something over 150 miles away by trail. The snow was deep and no trail broken through, but it was that or nothing. So A.M. decided to send six dog trains and I volunteered to lead the party. "We started out early one day heavily loaded with dog-skin, as we had to catch on the trip down, there being no supply at the Rapids. It took us four days to reach the post, when we spent a day, then loaded our sleds with 400 lbs. each, consisting of dog food, provisions and bedding on top of that, and started for home."

It had snowed I think every day since we left the Pas. The weather was awfully cold and windy, with no sign of the trail we had broken coming down. Cedar Lake was the only decent bit of going on the whole trip, but the river was over waist deep in snow and I volunteered to lead the party. "We started out early one day heavily loaded with dog-skin, as we had to catch on the trip down, there being no supply at the Rapids. It took us four days to reach the post, when we spent a day, then loaded our sleds with 400 lbs. each, consisting of dog food, provisions and bedding on top of that, and started for home."

Five nights had passed on our homeward journey and our rations were about gone, both for men and dogs. There were still some thirty miles to go yet and the men were getting out of hand and undisciplined. I soon found all must take turns, as one hour or less in front of the dogs was enough for any of us and, then you would be wet to the skin with the heavy exertion.

United States Farmers Would Hold Wheat

Advised to Not Market Grain Until Price Is Restored

Kansas City.—A nationwide producers' strike, to combat the falling prices of farm products, was urged on a call sent out by the National Farmers' Union to its local units throughout the country. The proposed strike was urged in retaliation for what the convention considered arbitrary deflation in prices of farm products, and it was asserted that farmers of the United States have been robbed of one billion dollars in reduced value of products now on hand. All farmers were urged to hold this year's production from the markets until "profit-making levels" were restored.

The action of the National Farmers' Union was in line with a "wheat strike" called several weeks ago by the Wheat Growers' Association of the United States. Delegates asserted a considerable quantity of this year's wheat crop was being held off the market by farmers.

Defence Problems

Imperial Terms Will Be Discussed At Forthcoming Meeting of Prime Ministers

London.—Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law explained at the House of Commons the meeting of prime ministers of the empire, summoned for June next. It will be a meeting along the lines of the Imperial war cabinet meetings which took place in 1917-18. Mr. Bonar Law added that there is a general agreement on imperial defence matters which will require the examination in the near future. "But I am not yet able to say precisely what arrangements will be made for their discussion."

Critical Situation In India.

London.—Hon. Edward Samuel Montagu, secretary of state for India, admitted that a dangerous situation existed in that country and said that the Government there would be left perfectly free to take whatever steps it deemed necessary in dealing with it.

Penitentiary Reforms

Changes in Administration Likely as Result of Work Done By Royal Commission.

Ottawa.—Many important changes in the administration of Canadian penitentiaries are likely to be made as the result of the work now being done by the Royal Commission named by the Government some time ago to draft new regulations for the penitentiaries. Several sittings of the commission already have been held, and many valuable suggestions have been received from all classes of Canadian officials.

The commission, before drafting its findings, will visit New York and learn what it can from people responsible for the administration of United States penal institutions.

Want Explanation.

The Hague.—The Dutch Government has been asked to explain to Parliament why former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany is permitted to carry on constant communication with the German Reichsmarschall.

Cost Of Prince's Visit.

London.—One hundred thousand pounds sterling, the cost of visit of the Prince of Wales to the country, has been voted by the Government of New Zealand.

No Change in Vote.

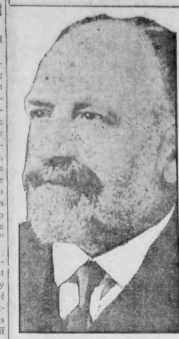

London.—Results of the Scottish prohibition poll so far show no change in 196 districts; 24 districts have voted for limitation of licenses and 23 for no licenses.

Urges Government Economy.

London.—The House of Lords has adopted a motion pressing the Government immediately to reduce the huge staffs in its departments.

The question was referred to the court in June, as a result of the federal minister of justice and the provincial attorney-general differing as to the powers of the province to regulate its police force, which prohibited the employment of any Japanese by the owner of a timber or logging license.

Saskatoon Winter Fair.

Saskatoon, Sask.—The most successful winter fair in the history of Saskatoon was held last week. Showings of heavy draft horses were particularly good, and many prize prices were distributed. Albert Robins, of Laura, Sask., won the boys' call competition. James I. Moffatt, of Carleton Place, was awarded the grand championship in fat steers. Follett Brothers, of Duval, Sask., took a large number of prizes in sheep classes.

HEART SO BAD WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Yatsman, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nervous and fainting spells, was down to bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would still come. One day while sitting at the table, I was taken with a terrible fall, wherever I was, that it was my heart. I would like to tell you that at last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day while reading the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I was so struck by them, and before I had taken more than two boxes, I found my heart was helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me. I advise any other person with their heart to try them, as I am cured. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50¢ a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The J. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Consider That Veterans Are Absorbed Into Civil Life

No Special Provision Will Be Made For Finding Work For Returned Soldier.

Winnipeg.—A special despatch to the Press from its Ottawa correspondent reads: "Whatever Federal methods are devised during the coming winter months to cope with the unemployment situation which threatens to be acute in the urban centers, they will be adopted without particular regard for the returned soldier. Apart from the care of seriously disabled men, which will be continued under the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment for some time yet, the returned soldier in future will have to fend for himself, and is looked upon as having been absorbed into the civilian life."

Any means which are suggested by the federal authorities to deal with the unemployment situation will have regard for the unemployed as a whole and without distinction. The assistance provided to help unemployed returned men over last winter expired in March last (for single men) and April (for married men). Under the provisions of the appropriations only $100,000,000 were disbursed, employment having been found for the majority of needy cases within a brief period of the receipt of first financial assistance. In fact it cannot be said that fear of abuse of the assistance were realized.

There is now no parliamentary provision for a continuation of the assistance during the coming winter and the machinery for doing so has been pretty well scrapped. During the past summer, it is stated, there were few cases of unemployment among returned men.

Unemployment is now largely a financial matter. The federal authorities have undertaken to pay half the cost of the upkeep of the provincial labor bureau, while the labor department assists in the compilation of statistics showing at what points and in what particular industry labor is required.

Constatipole.—Allied officers here praise the heroism of Gen. Wrangle's troops during the days of the Crimean disaster. The cavalry divisions of sub-Generals Markoff, Barbovitch and Skladoff suffered terrible losses in defending the peninsula, which it is believed would have held out if Wrangle's forces were not outflanked on the frozen peninsula. The Mousketti regiments were virtually wiped out, there being only five survivors.

John Doughty, who has been arrested in Portland, Oregon, was for many years private secretary to Andrew J. Small, millionaire Canadian theatre manager, who disappeared on Dec. 2nd, 1919, after he had deposited in his bank a marked cheque for $10,000.00 which he had received from the Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd. for the purchase of his theatre. Small is still missing. On Dec. 28, Doughty also disappeared, and search for him has been made all over the civilized world. Nothing definite concerning his whereabouts had been published until the receipt this morning of the news of his arrest in Portland. Five thousand dollars reward was offered for his apprehension.

He was arrested by Constable Edward Fortune.

Presbyterian Synod Declares Vote is for Prohibition of Liquor and not Government Control

The following resolution was passed by the Presbyterian Synod or Alberta at its meeting in Edmonton recently:

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada has repeatedly and unanimously pronounced in favor of the total prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes, and has laid its power to its people to do all in their power to end the drink traffic;

And whereas the recent prohibition campaign in Alberta to forbid the importation into the province of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes was in conformity with the assembly's declarations and was actively participated in by the Presbyterian body in Alberta;

And whereas despite many heavy handicaps a majority approximating 20,000 has been polled in favor of the said prohibition;

And whereas already in certain quarters and by certain persons a subtle and persistent effort is being made to disparage the vote cast and to thwart the will of the people as democratically expressed at the polls;

Therefore be it resolved
1. That this Synod declare emphatically that in its judgment the vote polled and the majority given is a clear indication that the will of the people is for prohibition and not for government control of the liquor traffic;

2. That it call upon the government in the light of this mandate to make such amendments to the present liquor act will through efficient administration lead to the removal of such abuses, for example as are apparent in connection with the issuing of medical prescriptions.

3. That it warn its people to be vigilant and take such measures as will bring defeat to the plans of any persons or parties who may seek to undermine the prohibition sentiment in the province or subvert the present prohibition legislation.

4. That it pledge itself to co-operate with all other organizations that united with it in achieving the victory of October 25th in resisting any invasion of the registered will of the people.

5. That this resolution be read to all the congregations of the Synod, and that copies of it be sent to the premier, the attorney-general, and to all the organizations referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Booze Dealers in Exciting Battle

CHATHAM, Ont. Nov. 25.—Evidence of an exciting battle between rum runners and illicit dealers in "booze" have just been discovered by Chief Peters of the Kent county police. The evidence consists of three autos with the top ripped with bullets, windshields smashed, sides grooved with shots and the lights front and rear, smashed by bullets as the result of a stiff fight.

It is believed by the crown authorities that these cars were used by the party of rum runners in their flight at the farm of Frank King in Dorset township on the night of October 28th, when Frank Cornish of Windsor was wounded in both legs in a fight with alleged liquor dealers. It has also been officially stated that shotgun, rifles, revolvers and stomegas figured in the fight.

A HORRIBLE ADVENTURE

A love of adventure got two English officers a fearful experience when the army advanced against Tien-tai-rop, in the early days of 1758. These were Capt. Pringle and Lieut. Roche, who joined the force of General Rogers at that time for the love of the fight against the French.

When they reached the vicinity of the Fort they found that the French and the Indians had made ample preparations for a great resistance. They had arranged themselves in such a manner that soon the attackers were in danger of being surrounded, while from the woods the fearful war-whoops of the braves indicated the fate of any man who got away from his fellows. Seeing that all was being lost General Rogers advised the two officers, who had volunteered for the struggle, to escape if they could, and he offered to provide them with a guide to help them to get away. This they refused to do until near night, when Rogers and the pair, with about twenty other men, sought to save their lives by flight. In the darkness of the forests the two volunteers became separated from their fellows, and being ignorant of woodcraft they wandered around all night aimlessly in the snow. They had lost their snowshoes, all means of making any fires and they had little food. For five days they wandered, thinking all the time that they were approaching safety. One may imagine then, their feelings on finding at the end of that time that they had come back to the place from which they started. Then they found a soldier whom they recognized as a servant of General Rogers, and he volunteered to lead them out of the vast forest. But he became insane from his privations and hardships, so that this assistance was denied them. To add to their troubles, in a land where game was very scarce, Captain Pringle fell into a river while crossing it and lost his gun in the depths below.

TABOO

Just as the "emu" ending in "buran" is indicative of French origin, the final "a" of "hotilla" and "matilla" shows the Spanish birth of these words, and the "o" of "potato," "tobacco" and "tomato" prove their derivation from the American Indian, the "oo" of "hoodoo," "tattoo" and "taboo" is characteristic of the Malay tongues. In fact, "taboo" is nothing more than a phonetic rendition of the word "tabu" as used in the dialects of Tonga, Tahiti and Samoa.

Among the Polynesians and other races of the South Pacific, tabu is a system or practice whereby persons, things, places, action or words are placed under a ban or set apart as sacred. While the taboo rests primarily upon religious sanctions, it is also a civil institution applied in various ways either by a priest, a chief, or even by a private individual. In the majority of places the violation of the taboo makes the offender himself the taboo, as is to be seen in the belief that he who eats of forbidden flesh will break out in sores or that the animal will reproduce within him and devour his vital.

The Malaysians believe that burial grounds are taboo, and that, if the shadow of a passer-by falls on a grave, it will entail the loss of his soul. Other beliefs of a similar kind are that the kings of some of the nations where taboo flourishes may not look at the sea; that other kings must not lie down to sleep; that it is taboo to watch a king eating, and in the Mantawai Islands, that the chief who eats at the same time as the common people will die. The peculiar superstitions concerning the word appealed to the Portuguese and other European explorers, who brought the term back with them, and it slipped into a number of western languages as a broad synonym for "forbidden."

The man that does "Not Advertise" is not in real business.

Alberta Hog Production

Expected That Good Supply of Rough Grains Will Stimulate Interest.

Alberta hog producers are little concerned about any British subsidy of five cents a pound on Canadian bacon. As a matter of fact there are practically no hogs in the country. This is accounted for owing to the enormous price of feed last year when the majority of farmers discontinued hog breeding. With the changed conditions this fall, when rough grains are plentiful there will, undoubtedly be a large number of raisers again engaged in the industry, but they state it will be at least twelve months before there are in a position to supply the home and coast market, and that two years must elapse—even if there is again a good crop of rough grains in the uncertainty before there will be in a position to enter the export trade.

Halpin vs. Grant et al

In the case of Halpin vs. Grant et al, Stephen Halpin, of Coaldale, a railroad telegraph operator, sued Grant Smith and Co. and Donnell Ltd., for the sum of $3,350 damages, alleged to have been sustained by himself personally and to the car he was driving through falling into an open irrigation ditch on the public highway one mile east of Barnwell, excavated by the defendants, on the night of September 14th, 1919. Plaintiff was represented by Mr. Savary, K.C., and Mr. McKenna, and the defendants by Mr. Sinclair, K.C. and Mr. Goodall.

The case as given to the jury was the plaintiff suffered damages from the negligence of the defendants in excavating and leaving unfenced and unlighted a trench across a public highway one mile east of the village of Barnwell, so that the said road was dangerous and unsafe to persons driving along it. Further that the plaintiff while he was on the 14th of September, 1919, driving an automobile along the said road, at about half past nine P.M. time in the evening, could not and did not see the said trench and drove his car into the ditch and thereby sustained severe personal injuries and the car was completely wrecked. By reason of such personal injuries the plaintiff suffered great pain and has been and still is prevented from attending to his occupation of a railroad telegraph operator, and has thereby sustained great loss and incurred expense, surgical and medical attendance and for nursing and attendance. Damages claimed are made up as follows: damage to automobile $800, medical expenses $50, general damages $2,500, with costs of the action. The accident occurred as plaintiff was returning from Bow Island to Coaldale, and both he and his car were landed in the bottom of the ditch. The plaintiff was accompanied at the time by T. Drinkwater who went for aid.

The defendants deny negligence, pleading that the Irrigation Act, the Motor Vehicle Act, and the Rural Municipalities Act. It is further averred that there was negligence on the part of the plaintiff at the time of the accident, in that he was driving his car recklessly, unskillfully, and at an excessive rate of speed.

PLAINTIFF WINS

Burdett News

From our own Correspondent

Burdett has again shown itself to be a go-ahead town. Last Summer a doctor located there but after a short stay moved to near by town leaving them without medical assistance. Steps were taken to obtain the services of a first class man who will be a permanent resident. We understand that such a man has been found; he was in the district last week and after making the most exhaustive enquiries decided to come in. His first step was to buy one of the largest homes in town. These places him in the position of a man who means to stay. The town and district are arranging to establish a hospital at once and the money for this is already subscribed. The new man is married, his wife a trained hospital nurse, he is well qualified having carried off many prizes in his career and is well recommended by some of the foremost surgeons in the Dominion. He has one other qualification which will appeal to the people, he is a temperate man who rarely uses alcohol except as medicine. Those who are responsible for this move are relieved as to who he is but to doubt we will be in better position to give full details in our next issue. In the meantime the town and district are to be congratulated on the outcome of their efforts and we wish the new man every success.

The Ladies Aid of the Burdett United Church will hold a Sale of Fancy and Useful Articles, and Supper on December 11th, 1920 at Burdett.

Watch for fuller notice next week

On Sunday last the G. W. V. A. local branch held their first meeting since the Summer. There was a good attendance and an interesting time was spent. The Secretary reported that subscriptions were coming in as they fell due and that since the last meeting he had put through several transfers from other branches. The financial statement shows the branch to be in good standing. One of the members, Abe Brown, having taken unto himself a wife it was decided to give him a memento of the happy event and a nice sum of money was voted for this purpose.

The L. D. S. Church hold services at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. every Sunday. Everybody welcome, lots of good music and hearty singing. Come and join us next Sunday and take a fresh hold on life and happiness.

Our teachers spent a few days last week in Lethbridge attending their conference. This meant the school was closed for several days during which the children had a good time.

Mr. L. B. Rygg has now left the hotel. He has opened a tailor shop on Main Street and will live on the premises for the Winter.

Mrs. Emmerson Brown will be found at the hotel again. Her chery welcome will be extended to all her old friends. It is hoped she will be kept busy and have a full house all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rygg spent the week end at Lethbridge making the trip both ways in their car.

Mr. Frank Bertram has gone to take a position for the Winter with the C. N. R. at Regina. He is not expected to return alone in the Spring.

It looked like old times last week when one saw two members of the R.N.W.M.P. in town. They spent a couple of days in the district.

Hank Weber was unfortunate last week. He injured his hand while at work and it is expected that he broke some bones. As there was no doctor in Burdett at the time he went on to Bow Island but was not fortunate enough to get medical assistance.
